Wished to Rid Himself.

a daughter of one of his neighbors.

town on Tuesday morning, carrying a year-old male infant. He said he had found the child in the snow at Maspeth avenue and Grand street. The baby was FLOWER-CLARK.

Daughter Famous as a Prima Denna.

Frederick Stanton Flower, the banker was married yesterday afternoon to Miss Hilda Kathryn Clark, youngest daughter of

ome, 353 Riverside Drive. The Rev. Dr

Abbott E. Kittredge, pastor of the Madison Avenue Reformed Church, performed the room. Its walls were covered for the occa-sion with sprays of asparagus, amid which joining d i g room were more roses and groups o. palms. An orchestra played behind Princess and draped with white tulle and appliqued with lace. Her tulle veil was caught with orange blosssoms and she car

Villard-Sanford.

ATHENS, Ga, Feb. 18.—Oswald Garrison Villard, publisher of the New York Evening

Post and Miss Julia Breckenridge Sanford evening in the Presbyterian Church. It was evening in the Presbyterian Church. It was quite appropriate that the marriage should occur in Athens, as it was in this city, while attending the Southern Educational Conference last April, that Mr. Villard met the young woman who this evening became his bride. The ceremony was performed by Dr. J. W. Walden, paster of the church, and immediately following was a reception to the bridal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Hodgeson.

Mr. and Mrs. Villard will leave to-morrow for Florida where they will spend several weeks.

Underhill-Baird.

Beekman Underhill yesterday afternoon, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Baird, 273 West Seventy-third street. The Rev. Dr. S. Delancey Townsend of all Angels' Church officiated.

of all Angels' Church officiated.

The bride were a cream lace robe over taffeta and chiffon, a tulle veil secured with orange blossoms and a diamond heart pendant presented by the bridegroom. She carried a shower bouquet of lilles. Miss Marion I. Baird, her maid of honor, were a princess gown of pale blue crèpe de chine and carried roses.

The best mian was Morgan Cowperthwaite and the ushers Virgil C. Gates, Frank H. Davidson and Matthew Baird. A reception followed and later a dinner was given for the bridal party.

Smith-Dinning.

Miss Clara I. Baird was married to Gerard

Took Him Away When He Grew Thin on Capt. Wilson Beat Him-Food Good and Never a Beating, Wilson Says.

mposition which looked like diluted pinushions without the covers and was called porridge," which Squeers fed to his pupils "Nicholas Nickleby," was one of the principal causes of a suit yesterday after- | gusted. noon in the Tenth District Municipal Court West Fifty-fourth street.

Amelia Summerville, the actress, says that her son got beans too often at the Hudson River Military Academy, at Nyack, and that was one of the reasons she took him away from there. Capt. Joel Wilson, who runs the school, thought that Miss Summerville ought to pay for the part of the year that her son was not at the school and it was for that reason that brought the suit heard yesterday by Justice Murray.

Mise Summerville, off the stage, is known as Mrs. Amelia Stepan. She has two children by her first marriage, Russell Runnells, 12 years old, and Grace, two years his junior. Russell, a little fellow, was in stand he showed that he knew beans whether the bag was open or closed.

Young Russell has been in several private he was at Muldoon's farm at White Plains. In the fall his mother sent him to Wilson's farm and later to Wilson's academy. She was to pay, according to Wilson, $400 a

In the following March she took him home, because, she says, he was not well treated and didn't get enough to eat. He got so and didn't get enough to eat. He got so many beans and potatoes, she declares, that he became a mere skeleton. She had paid Wilson $270, she said, and she thought that was enough. And she was paying by the week, anyway.

Wilson was called as the first witness yesterday. He testified that he had received in all $250. He wanted $170.50, which he said was for the balance of the year and sundries furnished to the boy.

Emanuel Friend, the actress's lawyer, started in the cross-examination with a rush. After having Capt. Wilson testify that he was a veteran of the Civil War and the practical owner of the school, he asked:

"Do you have a system of corporal pun-"Do you have a system of corporal pun-ishment at your school?"

"No, sir," replied the Captain

"Use a strap?"

"No, sir.

Ever struck one of your pupils?

How do you feed your pupils?"
First-class food. Get it from the mar-

"First-class food. Get it from the margets here."
"Don't beans predominate on the table?"
"No, sir: they get them two or three times a week. The food is good. I sit at the table and eat with the boys."

And so did Squeers in "Oliver Twist," didn't he?" asked Mr. Friend.
Capt. Wilson said that he didn't remember. He was excusable, however, for not remembering, as Mr. Friend had his Dickens somewhat mixed.

Miss Summerville was called by the plaintiff. On cross-examination she told plaintiff. On cross-examination she told of the boy's condition when he left Mul-doon's, and declared that he was sick most of the time he was at the military academy. She went there three times to see him, she said, and found him sick each time. After she had taken him home, she said, he threatened to commit suicide if she sent him home, she said, he threatened to commit suicide if she sent him back there again.

The boy himself was called as the only witness for his mother. He told about being at Muldoon's and at various military academies, and declared that Capt. Wilson's was the only school he ever attended where he had to make up his own bed and keep his room clean.

room clean.

"Were you ever struck there by any one in authority?" asked Lawyer Friend.

"Yes, sir, by Capt. Wilson," replied the boy; "with a leather belt two or three times."

times."

Lawyer Friend then questioned Russell at length regarding the boy's sickness at the school and the food he got. The witness couldn't remember much that he had to eat except beans and potatoes. He did think, however, that he had meat once a device. What did you have on Monday morning

Russell?" asked Justice Murray.
"Beans." "Beans."
Capt. Wilson went back on the stand and denied that any pupil in his school had ever been subjected to corporal punishment. He denied in substance nearly everything to which the boy testified.

Justice Murray took the papers and

AMES HEARING TO-DAY. Sheriff From Minneapolis Visits the Fugitive

Ex-Mayor of That City. HANCOCK, N. H., Feb. 18 .- For the first time since they purted company at Louisville, Ky., three months ago, when the fugitive gave the officers the slip, as he says, Sheriff Dreger and ex-Mayor Ames of Minneapolis met this evening in the big Congregational parsonage in this village. The interview was long. Sheriff Dreger came over from Concord with Sheriff Deane of this county. They will remain all night and return to Concord in the morning when the hearing before Gov. Batchelder, which was begun to-day, but was postponed at the request of Ames's counsel, will be held. United States Districk Attorney Hamblett, who is counsel for Ames, said in Concord to-day that he would not resort to habeas corpus if his client's health was such that he could stand the journey and trial. Sheriff Dreger said that he came over to see Ames personally and ascertain his condition from his own observation. When the officers left the house Sheriff

When the officers left the house Sheriff Dredger admitted that his interview with Dr. Ames had entirely changed his view of the case. The condition of the doctor has altered wonderfully since the Sheriff last saw him. Sheriff Dredger declares that, owing to the sickness of the prisoner, he will not himself assume the responsibility of removing him to Minneapolis He has forwarded to the Prosecuting Attorney of Hennepin county the written diagnosis made at the instance of himself by Dr. C. P. Conn yesterday and a personal statement of the case. tatement of the case.

statement of the case.

Whether or not the requisition is honored.
Dr. Ames is safe until further orders from Minneapolis. Deputy Sheriffs Bruce and Hunt who have been guarding Dr. Ames both say that he has failed rapidly since they took charge on last Saturday. Sheriff Deane to-night sent word to James P.
Tuttle of Manchester, Solicitor of Hillsboro county, asking him to officially represent him to-morrow.

Wouldn't Live Without His Son. Wolf Potasch, 50 years old, a cigarmaker, committed suicide yesterday at his resi-dence, 203 East 114th street, by taking carbolic acid because his son, Michael, died seven weeks ago. He had several other

NE

JOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

The cold weather has stepped the work on the The Medico-Legal Society adopted last night a memorial to the Legislature protesting against recent legislation changing the system of super-vising the insane in State asylums

Arrangements have been completed for a debate about six weeks.

The New York Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor appeals for $18,343 with which to continue its work of relieving distress in the present scason. Food and fuel cost more than usual this year, it says, and the population and needs of the city are rapidly increasing.

Mrs. Zerlina Held, residing at the Hotel Lafayette-Brevoort, Fifth avenue and Eighth street, has filed a petition of bankruptcy with liabilities $42,000 and no assets. The debts were contracted between 1855 and 1840, largely as indorser of notes of the 5. J. Held Company, importers of flowers and feathers.

MAY NOT BURN OLD CLIPPER. MAD DOG BIT EIGHT PERSONS. Bayonne Fours Flames Would Spread and Do Damage.

The old hulk that was once the proud clipper packet Macauley, famous on the Atlantic in the days when the Yankee clippers carried brooms at their mastheads still lies on her battered side in the mud off Bergen Point, N. J.

The Town Council of Bayonne refused permission to the Brooklyn junk man, who owns her to burn her on the beach, and Capt. Fred Wilson, who ha i been camping out in Fred Lumbreyer's picnic grove on the Point since Sunday waiting to oversee the job, has returned to Brooklyn dis-

The Macauley was built in the days when the best sailing ships in the world were launched from the American yards. H. A. Cooper built her at Fella Point, Baltimore in 1855, for Capt. John Rogers, late United States Shipping Commissioner at Baltithat now make the old hulk valuable. The spot where she lies, at the head of First street, Bayonne, was once the waterfront of a fine old country place. The old house is still standing and is a good hundred yards from the hulk; but the Bayonne authorities feared it was near enough to be endangered if the hulk was set on fire.

The hull has been stripped of the upper works and the decks have been torn away, leaving only a shell. So well was the old ship works and the decks have been torn away, leaving only a shell. So well was the old ship built that the hull is still ight. The plan was to set her on fire while she floated at high tide, letting the fire eat to the water's edge. As the wood was consumed Capt. Wilson figured the hull would be lightened and could be gradually hauled further up on the beach.

up on the beach.

It was hoped that most of the copper from the planking would fall inboard as the fire progressed and could be collected afterward from the bottom of the hold.

Capt. Wilson said yesterday that if the Fire Commissioner of Bayonne to whom the Town Council has referred the matter of the burning don't give him the permission he wants when they meet to-night he will get rid of the hulk in sections. Fred Lumbreyer, off whose dock she is moored, suggests that nothing much could be done if Capt. Wilson went ahead and burnt the Macauley anyway. She lies in New York waters but the bottom is in Bayonne.

The townspeople rather expect to see The townspeople rather expect to see flames rise from the head of First street any dark night.

HAD TO BUY TICKETS TO WORK. Snow Shovellers Accuse Street Cleaning Foremen of Extortion.

Antonio Defillipo of 457 East 151st street, and Joseph Martello, laborers hired to shovel snow, tried to find Magistrate Flammer in the Morrisania Police Court yesterday to complain of extortion by the foreman in the employ of the Street Cleaning Department. The Magistrate had gone before they reached the court.

Defillipo says that he worked Tuesday and when he reported for duty yesterday morning he was asked for his ticket. He said he did not have any. He says the said he did not have any. He says the foreman told him and Martello to go to an Italian saloonkeeper in East 152d street and pay 25 cents each and they would get their ticket.

The Italians said they refused to pay the money and were discharged. Defillipo said he knew of many others who had paid the money and were working every day. said he knew of many others who had paid the money and were working every day. He said the agreement is that the money is to go to the foreman, and the saloon-keeper must be content with the patronage of the men.

Deputy Commissioner Gibson said the story would be investigated.

8,000 MEN REMOVING SNOW. That Gives You a Sort of an Idea That This

It was estimated that by last night about 200,000 cubic yards of snow had been re-moved from the streets of this borough it an expense to the city of $50,000 and hat the present snowfall will cost the city more than $263,000. Broadway was cleared yesterday from Bowling Green to Fifty-ninth street and so were most of the venues and all the streets leading to the ferries.

It is expected that all the downtown business streets will be cleared by to-day.

as Contractor Bradley ordered most of his force to work there last night.

It was said yesterday that, while the Street Cleaning Department was satisfied with the progress being made, just about twice as good a showing would have been the result had not the demand for coal led to a shortage of trucks. Assistant Snow Inspector Thorley said that about 8.000 men were at work in all boroughs removing snow.

SICK MAN FROZEN TO DEATH. Went Out in the Night and Sat on His Own Doorstep in Newark.

Exposure to the cold for two hours yes erdey morning caused the death of Philip Riley, 41 years old of 13 Lister avenue, Newark. Riley had been ill for some time and had not been out of the house for sevand had not been out of the house for several days. At 4 o'clock yesterday morning one of the boarders heard somebody go downstairs and open the front door.

Two hours later two Poles found and tried to arouse Riley, who was sitting on the front stoop, thinly clad, with the mercury at zero. One of the foreigners took cury at zero. One of the foreigners took off his coat and wrapped it around Riley while the other slapped and chafed his Riley was taken into the house and a physician was called. He said that the man had been dead for an hour at least.

TRAIN STUCK IN SNOWDRIFT. Rescuing Engine Stalled, Too, Until Big

Snowplough Cleared the Way. CUTCHOGUE, L. I., Feb. 18.-A Greenport passenger train spent most of last night in a snowdrift in Cutchogue Cut. The train reached Greenport about 5 o'clock this morning. Two engines were attached to this train, but they were unable to force a way through.

Engine No. 7 was sent to the rescue, but became fast in the snow before it reached the imprisoned train. At 2 A. M. one of the big snowploughs pushed by two engines cleared the track and pulled

PERISHED IN THE SNOW.

Woman Finds Her Husband Dead on the Palisades-His Companion Missing. HACKENSACK, N. J., Feb. 18.-Andrew Anderson, watchman at Ross & Sandford's quarry houses under the Palisades at Coytes-ville, went to the Fort Lee post office last evening with John Pepper, a fisherman. The men failed to show up at their home and men failed to show up at their nome and Mrs. Anderson started up the perilous Palisades trail in search of her husband.

She found him dead in the snow near the summit of the cliff.

Pepper has not yet been found, but it is thought he suffered a similar fate.

15 to 36 Below Zero in the Adirendacks. SARATOGA, Feb. 18 .- A cold wave of unusual severity swaped down on the lower Adirondacks during the night. The mercury registered 15 degrees below mercury registered is degrees below zero here at daybreak. Other below zero figures reported were: Schuylerville, 18; Ballston Spa and Whitehall, each 20; Indian Lake, 22; Schroon Lake, 29; North Creek, 30 and Warrensburgh, 36. The weather has moderated several degrees this forenoon.

Florida's Orange Trees Saved.

JACKSONVILLE, Fia., Feb. 18.-To-night's reports indicate that last night's cold snap did very little damage to early vegetables or tropical fruits. All the orange growers had ample warning and the young trees were fully protected.

SCARES CROWDS IN BROADWAY AND NEARBY STREETS.

Flushing on a peculiar charge. Davis lives in Maspeth and has passed as a single Treatment for All the Victims Save Two Children-Dog Killed After a Long man. He was engaged, it is said, to marry Run-Test Made From Its Brain.

Eight persons were bitten by a big Newoundland dog that ran through the wholesale grocery district yesterday morning. The animal, it is believed, was suffering from rables and all of those bitten, with the exception of two children, have received

The dog was first seen at 7:15 o'clock by Policeman Robert McGuire, of the Leonard street station, who was in front of 46 Hudson street. The dog sprang pon him from the gutter, tearing a hole in his coat and forcing the policeman over in a snowbank. As he fell the dog buried i s teeth in his face. The policeman's upper lip was badly lacerated. He succeeded, owever, in fighting the animal off, and chased it through Thomas street to West Broadway, where he lest sight of it among the trucks. The policeman then went to the Hudso street hospital, where Dr. Riggins cauterized his wound. His condition was found to be so serious that he was sent to his home 551 Hudson street, where Dr. Rambau of the Pasteur Institute visited him later

From West Broadway the dog ran through Leonard street to Broadway. In Leonard street he knocked down Frank Durant a Baxter street butcher, and bit him twice Hospital and later to the Pasteur Institute. The dog finally made his way across Broadway and ran down Leonard street, caming at the mouth and snapping at street the dog turned north and ran to Canal. Abraham Pizzar Ili of 401 Centre street was attacked in Canal street and bitten in the arm slightly. In crossing Centre street the dog attacked Charles Tressz of 303 East Fifth street, and A. B. Clark of 444 Forty-eighth street, South Brooklyn. Clark was bitten in the leg and Tressz in the right hand. About a minute later in the right hand. About a minute later the animal attacked Christopher Edanhoefer of 423 East Eighty-sixth street, who was bitten in the arm.

The cry of "mad dog" sent pedestrians sourrying to places of safety in hallways, office buildings and trolley cars.

The animal retraced his steps through Carate street from Carate street and landed who was bitten in the arm.

The cry of 'mad cog' sent pedestrians scurrying to places of safety in halways, office buildings and trolley cars.

The animal retraced his steps through Centre street from Canal street and landed in Mulberry Bend Park, where a crowd of these children were playing in the snow. Two of these children were playing in the snow. Two of these children were playing in the snow. Two of these children were playing in the snow. Two of these children were playing in the snow. Two of these children were playing in the snow. Two of these children were playing in the snow. Two of these children were playing in the snow. Two of these children were playing in the snow. Two of the street station met the crowd at the animal as it ran diagonally through the park and north into Mulberry street.

Policeman Walter Flanders' of the Mulberry street station met the crowd at the corner of Grand and Mulberry streets. The beast sprang for his head. As he did so the officer thrust his revolver down the dogs throat and fired two shots. The animal fell, but jumped up and ran into Spring street, where it fell dead.

The carcass was sent to the Pasteur Institute, where Dr. Rambaud yesterday afternoon inoculated two rabbits with the animal's brain in order to determine whether it was suffering from rables. It will be several days before the result of this test will be known.

All of those bitten were treated at the Pasteur Institute except Policeman McGure who was treated at his home Dr. Rambaud regards the p liceman's case as more serious than the others, because the wound is in his face. He says that the percentage of deaths from maded to the wounds are not treated. Policeman McGure who was treated at his home Dr. Rambaud regards the p liceman's case as more serious than the others, because the wound is in his face. He says that the percentage of deaths from maded the work of the second the street of the second the street of the street of the street of this test will be known.

The Carolinean McGure who was reated

Pair of Gambiers to New York.

The Tuckahoe poolroom which was raided by Sheriff Miller in the last week in January here with his family to live several years ago, here with his family to live several years ago. by Sheriff Miller in the last week in January and has moved twice since that time as a blind retired from business yesterday. It was run by Western men. On Monday the room got a tip that the Sheriff's men were going to drop in and the room was closed up suddenly. The telegraph wire was shifted to another place on Tuesday, but again word came that the officers couldn't possibly avoid calling, so the two proprietors decided to quit.

Some one brought word that a deputy couldn't possibly avoid calling, so the two proprietors decided to quit. Some one brought word that a deputy sheriff was loitering about the railway station, so the owners walked across the trackless fields in a foot of snow and got a rain for Manhattan.

"A telegraph operator working in "A telegraph operator working in a Yonkers poolroom got thirteen months a few days ago," said one of them. "I'd rather play bank in New York unmolested, right in Miles O'Reilly's precinct, than back a game that may have a State's prison

"OLD JIM" QUINLAN IS DEAD. Workhouse Watchman for 25 Years and a Veteran of 6th Ward Polities.

"Old Jim" Quinlan, a veteran of Sixth ward politics, was found dead yesterday morning in the little watchman's shanty which he has occupied on Biackwell's Island for twenty-five years. Quinlan, who was 66 years old, had been suffering from heart disease for several years

Quinlan kept a room at 134 Centre street and went there occasionally to renew his acquaintances, but has not lived there since he was appointed to the workhouse in 1875. A year ago his friends got him transferred to the Tombs, but the old man only stayed a month and asked to be sent back to the island. He felt more at home back to the island. He felt more at home there, he said.

His body was taken to the home of his nephew, Thomas McCloin, at 362 Ninth avenue, where the funeral will be held, probably on Sunday. Nearly every politician in the Sixth ward will be there.

Obituary Notes.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 18.—Miss Winifred Din ning, daughter of Mrs. Henry Dinning of ning, daughter of Mrs. Henry Dinning of Baltimore, was married this afternoon to Sydney Leighton Smith of New York by the Rev. Harold N. Arrowsmith of Lenox, Mass., assisted by the Rev. Robert H. Paine, rector of the parish, at Mount Calvary Protestant Episcopal Church. The ushers were Alan Dinning of Philadelphia, a brother of the bride: Lycurgus Wirchester of Baltimore and Morris Underhill, Elward K. Crook, Joseph F. Simmons and Frederick S. Woodruff, all of New York. The bridesmaids were Miss Laura Jane Buckner and Miss Helen Richards of Philadelphia and Miss Helen O'Donovan of Baltimore. F. Raymond Lefferts, Jr. of New York was best man. Norman S. Adams, chief clerk of the auditor's department of the New York Custom House, died yesterday, under peculiar circumstances at his home, 498 Grand avenue, Brooklyn. On Saturday afternoon he was found unconscious in the bathtub in his house. The gas jet was partly turned on in the bathroom but was unlikhted. It is supposed that while taking a bath he was stricken with paralysis and in reaching out disarranged the gas jet. He lingered until yesterday morning unconscious. It was stated yesterday in behalf of Collector Stranahan that Mr. Adams was held in no way responsible for the recent defalcation of a customs clerk, and in the official announcement of his death he was spoken of as one of the most "efficient and conscientious men in the service." Mr. Adams was in the sixty-fourth year of his age and had been in the customs service since October,1861. He wasfortwenty years at the head of the import room, and for six years in the cashier's office. He had been chief clerk in the auditor's office since April, 1864.

Warren Scott Silicocks, a director in the Catholod Company, died vesterday, at his Ethel Jeane Boorsem, daughter of Mr. ar men in the service." Mr. Adams was in the stry-fourth year of his age and had been in the customs service since October, 1861. He was fortwenty years at the head of the import room, and for six years in the cashier's office. He had been chief clerk in the auditor's office since April, 1884.

Warren Scott Silicacks, a directer in the Celluloid Company, died yesterday at his home, 2s South Portland avenue, Procklyn. He was a native of New Brunswick, N. J., and came, on both the paternal and the maternal side, of Revolutionary ancestors. He was head of the iewelry firm of Silicacks & Cooley from 1862 to 1874. In the latter year he retired from the jewelry business and organized the Celluloid Novelty Company, which was afterward included in the Celluloid Company. He was formally a trustee in the Lafsyette Avenue Presbyterian Church and a member of the Chamber of Commerce. He was member of the Oxford Club and of the Society of the Son of the Revolution.

Peter M. Myers, second vice-president of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway died at Sea Breeze, Fia., on Tuesday, after a long illness. The body will be taken to Milwaukee for burial. Mrs. Jonathan Booraem, and Charles Louis

SAID HE FOUND BABY IN SNOW. REPLEYIN FLANAGAN'S SWORDS But It Was His Own Child, of Whom He

COMMISSIONS, TESTIMONIALS, John S. Davis, 23 years old, a conductor on the Flushing branch of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit system, was held in $500 bonds yesterday by Magistrate Smith at WAR BOOKS, BOOTS, Uniforms, Linen, Framed Military Photographs and Other Things in the Pos-session of Miss Anna Pranklin—She Won't Give the Sheriff a Bond.

Miss Anna Franklin, the young woman who claims an interest in the estate of Wiliam L. Flanagan, the brewer, says she wen't get out of her apartments in the Metropolitan Opera House building, at 1425 Broadway, where the chattels have out by the executors of the Flanagan estate, acting in behalf of Flanagan's widow. This proceeding follows the Franklin girl's suit against the estate for $10,000. Miss Franklin told Deputy Sheriff Cronin she wouldn't give an indemnity bond either.

avenue and Grand street. The baby was clad in flannel underclothing, lace-trimmed dress and a cloak and wore a fur cloak outside of that.

The infant was sent to the city nurse in Brooklyn and Capt. White ordered two of his men to investigate. The investigation led to the arrest of Davis. He admitted that the child was his own, and that he took that method of getting rid of it. Davis left his wife in Philadelphia some time ago, the police say, and last Monday she called at his boarding place and left their child with him.

Davis found himself in an awkward position and tried to palm off the baby as an abandoned youngster. We will move everything out of here at 6 o'clock to-morrow night," Cronin told her "You have no right to anything in the place. Everything here was owned by Mr. Flanagan. He hired the flat and fur-nished it and paid the rent up to the 1st of May. When we have moved out the goods we intend to lock up the place and hand the keys over to the agent of the Governor's Nephew Weds a Banker's

"He can't put me out," said Miss Franklin. 'The place was leased to me When she asked if she might keep Mr Flanagan's photograph, the deputy told her that all of the photos were mentioned in the schedule of goods claimed by the executors of the brewer's estate. The schedule includes bric-à-brac, carpets, beds and bedding, parlor furniture, dining-room furniture, clocks, oil paintings, steel en-gravings and other pictures, with the following:

Framed commission, Second Lieutenant Second Battery, National Guard.
Framed Commission as Captain.
Photo album presented to Flanagan by the Military Platoon.
Sword hanzing on wall of apartments.
Indian weapons on wall.
Framed certificate of Military Order of Foreign Wars of the United States, showing Mr. Flanagan to be a member.
Framed testimonial awarded to Flanagan for faithful military service.
Framed testimonial to Mr. Flanagan from the National Guard.
Mr. Flanagan's photo in frame.
Sixty books on war, military life and codes and rules. wedding music from "Lohengrin."
All about the house were quantities of palms, smilax and roses. At the entrance to the reception hall was a large group of palms. The staircase was hung with South-

Sixty books on war, military life and codes and rules.
Umbrella containing Mr. Flanagan's initials. Mr. Flanagan's cane, fishing tackle, including a dozen rods bearing his name.
Old guns used in wars, bows, arrows, fencing clubs, folls, twenty swords, two sabres, two pistols, one handsome revolver in case, pair of snow shoes, a dagger, pair of gold riding spurs in white box; one staff and military red silk flag marked "4 N. Y. V.," in the hall closet of said flat.
Two silk hats, two frock coats, two overcoats, two pairs linen riding trousers, shooting coats, rugs, fancy bootjack, silver tollet set marked "W. L. F.", linen fencing carpet, pair of rubber boots, pigeon shooting boxes, boxes of gun cartridges, three military framed photos of Mr. Flanagan, one air pillew, a pair of camera less, and framed honerary membership certificate of Blue Pencil Club.

The executors are Congressman De Witt

Blue Pencil Club.

The executors are Congressman De Witt
C. Flanagan, Florence A. Flanagan and Rudolph Hurry, and they are acting in behalf of the widow, Mrs. Mary J. Flanagan, who lived and still lives at the Hotel Marie Antoinette.

The Huron Club, a Greater New York Democracy organization which supported T. Cronin for the leadership of the Twentysecond Assembly district in the primaries of Feb. 10, held a meeting last night and McManus, former secretary of the Cronin Association, denounced Cronin as an John C. Sheehan took him off the tail end

"John C. Sheehan took him off the tail end of a street car and made him a deputy Sheriff at $2,500 a year," said Mr. McManus.
"Then Cronin turned on Sheehan. I'm through with him and his club."

The club went on record as favoring the nomination of Jacob A. Cantor for Mayor on the fusion ticket. Richard Leonardson, who used to be vice-president of the Croning the Mayor elected president of the Furner was elected president of the Furner was elected president of the Furner club, was elected president of the Huron t made at the primaries, each side held a primary of its own, will be decided by the Executive Committee and it is believed that Sheehan will install Mulroney as leader.

FOUND NEW TIES AT LIFE'S END.

Aged Recluse Met Two Daughters-in-Law Just Before She Died. Mrs. Hetty Staab, the aged recluse who left her home at 135 Bloomfield street. Hoboken, only twice the last twenty years, didn't know that she had two daughters-inlaw until shortly before her death last Sunday. When she was taken ill a week ago day. When she was taken ill a week ago her son. Washington, brought a young woman to nurse her. She was the first stranger to enter the house in ten years. Mrs. Staab protested against her presence in the house until told that she was her daughter-in-law. The son had married three years ago but had kept the fact secret because he feared his mother might dispiparit him. inherit him.

Mrs. Staab appeared to be overloyed with the news, and the son then told her that his elder brother, Alfred, did not make known his marriage thirteen years ago for the same reason. The old woman asked the same reason. The old woman asked that this other daughter-in-law be sent for moved to St. . . v's Hospital last Saturday

SLOSSON'S THIRD DEFEAT. Cure Wins From the Student by a Score of 5 % to 218.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN PARIS. Feb. 18 .- In the billiard match 18-inch balk line, two shots in, here to-night between Cure and Slosson, the former won in twenty-four innings. Slosson scored 218 to his opponent's 520. His highest run was 33. The play in the first period of the game was very even. In the second half Slosson scored eight points, while the Frenchman made 30. Curê's highest run was 113. Vignaux and Sutton will play to-morrow.

SHAMROCK'S CREW ARRIVING. Cup Challenger in General View Very Like the Shamrock II.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. GLASGOW, Feb. 18.—The firs contingent of the crew of the Shamrock III. has arrived at Dumbarton, where the yacht is building, to help set up the rigging. Despite some additional beam and a longer overhang fore and aft, a general view of the challenger is very like that of Shanrock II. The new boat has a deck of aluminum, an eighth of an inch thick, covered with wood.

August Faust Stays Fifteen Minutes With Harvey Parker.

August Faust, the Graco-Roman Wrestler of this city, met Harvey Parker in a fifteenminute catch-as-catch-can bout at the Star Theatre last night. Fgust made a good showing and succeeded in staying the limit and getting the decision. He was the aggressor for the better part of the contest, but could not secure any firm belds owing to Parker's eleverness. Tony Lippig went against Parker at the matines under eatch-ass-catch-can rules. Lippig made a good start, but became winded after the first five minutes. Parker then had no trouble in tossing him about, finally winning with a hal! N ison and crotch hold. The time was 7 ninutes 12 seconds. To-night Frank Dunne of South Brooklyn will try to stay fifteen minutes with Parker.

LEXIMOTOW, Feb. 18.—At the Woodward & Shank-lin sale to-day eighty head of borace brought $16,945. The nighest price was $1,000, paid for the five-year-old mare Talps with a record of 3:18% and the dis-

Franklin Simon & Co.,

Request Inspection of Their

Infant Outfitting Department

AND THE PRIVILEGE OF FURNISHING ESTIMATES ON BABY TROUSSEAUX

This department is the most complete in the city, showing goods of unequalled fineness, in which French hand made articles are a special feature. Prices are lower than elsewhere.

Upon request a competent person will be sent to residence with full assortment for trousseau.

FIFTH AVENUE, 37th & 38th Sts.

HYPNOTIZED TO MAKE WILL? SUIT BEGUN AGAINST GEORGE R. BLANCHARD'S WIDOW.

listers and Brother of the Railroad Mar Say His Widow, Whom He Mistrusted, Induced Him to Cut Them Off and Leave All to Her-Want Will Set Aside. An action has been begun in the Supreme Court in this county to set aside the probate of the will of George R. Blanchard, the ralroad man and Commissioner of the Joint Traffic Association, who died in October, 1900. An order for substituted service on Mrs. Delia A. Blanchard, the widow, at her residence, 1 Washington Square North, was granted by Justice Davis yesterday. The summons may now be served by nailing the papers to her door or leaving them at her house. Mr. Blanchard's will left everything to his widow, and the plaintiffs are Clarence A Blanchard, a brother, and Nellie B. Hoyt and Hattie B. Fuller, sisters. Mr. Blanchard and Mrs. Hoyt reside in Baltimore and Mrs. Fuller in Washington, D. C. The defendants are Mrs. Blanchard and Charles D. Ingersoll, as executrix and executor under the will. A third sister, Mrs. Ada D. Skinner, refused to join as a plaintiff, and is made a codefendant.

The plaintiffs allege that Blanchard wa not mentally competent when he executed his will, and also that Mrs. Blanchard used her powers as a hypnotist to influence him unduly. They declare, on information and belief, that the testator was unhappy in his marital relations, and had intercepted a letter alleged to have been written by her a man named McDonald. They assert that Blanchard's failure to remember them in his will could only have been caused by the influence of Mrs. Blanchard, who, they say, is a student and practiser of hyp-

In asking for the order for substituted service, the plaintiff's lawyers, Hazleton & Hazleton, of 220 Broadway, say that their process servers could not find Mrs. Blanchard at her residence and that they believe that she is in a sanitarium outside the State. Mr. Ingersoll, one of the defendants and executor with Mrs. Blanchard, said yesterday that the plaintiff's contentions could not be proved. He denied their allegations about the McDonald letter.

Mr. Blanchard's debts at the time of his death exceeded his personal assets by about $10,000. He owed his bankers, H. L. Horton & Co., $148,000. The ra estate which he I ft includes the Washington Square house, which is leasehold property a large country home at Proctorville, Vt., a summer residence at Elberon, N. J., and some property in Baltimore.

Paddeck for Troop ('s Horses. Troop C yesterday bought a plot of ground in the rear of the site purchased by the city for a new armory, at Bedford will use it as a paddock for their horses. It is said that the troop will present the land to the city. They mean to buy and have ready for service at all it. have ready for service at all times at least

The coldest weather of the winter was felt in the middle Atlantic States yesterday morning. The temperature ranged from 4 degrees below zero at Eastport, Me., to 2 degrees below freezing point at Jacksonville, Fla. Except for the lower temperature in the Atlantic States it was growing warmer in all other sections and in the Atlantic States there was a materia and in the Atlantic States there was a material rise of temperature after the morning hours. The crest of the cold has passed, and, although it will be moderately cold, the severe conditions, Mr. Dunu says, will not continue. After a day or two of moderate cold it will become much warmer. The pressure was high yesterday over a wide belt of country extending from the Dakotas, southeast. of country extending to the south Atlantic States. There was an area of low pressure passing out the St. Lawrence Valley; a second was coming in over the Northwest and a third was entering from the Guif of California. Fair weather prevailed generally over the country, save for some light snow in scattered places around the Lake regions and the Ohio Valley. In this city the day was mostly cloudy; the tem perature at 8 A.M. touched 6 degrees above zero, the lowest temperature of the winter, the next coldest vas 8 above zero, on Dec. 9. At midnight last night also the mercury stood at 8. The wind diminished in force and shifted from northwest to south and it became warmer: there were snow flurries at night; average humidity, 67 per cent.; bar meter, corrected to read to sea level at 8 A.M., 30. 1; 3 P.

M., 29.98.

The temperature yesterday as recorded by the official thermometer is shown in the annexed table:

1908. 1902. 1902. 1903. 1902.

9 A. M. 8° 28° 6 P. M. 17° 20° 12 M. 14° 21° 12 P. M. 17° 28° 12 Mid. 8° 22°

WASHINGTON FORECAST FOR TO DAT AND TO-MORROW For eastern New York, New Jersey and eastern Pennsylvania, fair and continued cold to-day; high west winds siminishing during the day, juit and not For New England, fair and continued cold to-day; brisk to high west to northwest winds; fair and no quite so cold to-morrow.

For the District of Columbia, Delaware and Maryland, fair and continued cold to day; diminishing west winds; partly cloudy with rising tempera-For western New York, fair to-day, except snow furries on Lake Eric and extreme castern Ontario ontinued cold: generally fair to morrow, with rising temperature; brisk west winds becoming Taking Chances on Life!

You certainly are if you let a cough or cold gain a foothold in your system. Take no chance. Use Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar early in the attack. Sold by all druggists.

Pike's 'onthache Dross Cure in One Minut.

SULPHOGEN

Easy money.

Suits at $12.00.

A collection of choice qualities of fancy suitings, and blues &

All of higher priced gradesboth Winter and Spring weights.

More Union Taffeta Silk Umbrellas, $1.50-the $3.00 kind.

Hackett Carhart & Co. | Cor. 13th St.

Three

BROADWAY | Cor. Canal St. Stores. Near Chambers.

"TAKE YOUR CLOTHES AND GO." Pat's Wife Turns Him Out and Sends His Clothes to O'Rellly.

A young man who spends most of his time loitering around the Tenderloin police station and is known to everybody thereabouts as Pat, was turned out of his home in the snow last night. His wife put him out and she sent his belongings to the sta-ion house.

With his clothing was a note to Capt.
O'Reilly asking him to take care of it until it was claimed by the owner. There was also a slip of paper attached to the clothing bear ng the owner's name and this message:
"Take your clothes and go."

How about your shirts? If you haven't seen the array of Cluett-Peabody's latest productions you'd better look-they're your kind. Cluett Shirts $1.50 up Monarch Shirts $1.00 Cluett, Peabody & Co.

MARRIED. VILLARD-SANDFORD.-At Athens, Ga., on Feb. 18, by the Rev. Dr. J. W. Waldon, Julia Breckinridge Sandford to Oswald Garrison Villard.

DIED. ADAMS. -At his residence, 10 West 34th st., Clinton Adams, in his 36th year, only brother of Jennie Bullard Waterbury and son of the late Coe Adams.

Puneral from the Little Church Around the Corner, Friday, 10 A. M. Interment Greenwood, ADLARD .- Robert Adlard, died Feb. 17, 1903. Funeral services from his late residence, 650 Myrtle av., Brooklyn, N. Y., Friday evening. Feb. 20, 8 P. M. English papers please copy.

BANNER.-Entered into rest, Tuesday, Feb. 17. Ruth A., only daughter of Mary and the late William Banner.

Funeral services at her late residence, 212 South

10th st., Newark, N. J., Friday, Feb. 20, at 2:30 P. M. Interment in Fairmount Cemetery. Relatives and friends are invited. GRANT.-Ransom R. Grant, on Feb. 18, 1903. at his residence, 2669 Marion av., Pordham, Bronx, beloved husband of Esther Grant, Puneral service at his late residence, 2009 Marion av., Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Intermen Plattsburg, N. Y., at convenience of the family LAPHAM .- Suddenly on Feb. 17, 1903, Frank A.

Lapham, in his 53d year.

Puneral services at his late residence, 155 Madison av., Friday afternoon, 1 o'clock. Interment private. LONGSTREET .- In Bordentown, N. J., Feb. 17, Elizabeth Newbold, widow of the late Heary H. Longstreet, M. D., aged 65 years. Relatives and friends are invited to attend the funeral from her late residence, Bordentown, MANGAN.-On Monday, Feb. 16, 1903, Rev. James Mangan.

Puneral will take place from the Church of the Sacred Heart, West 51st st., on Thursday, Feb. 19. Reverend clergy and friends are invited. Divine service at 9:30 A. M. Mass at 10:30 A. M. Syracuse and Rochester papers

NEALIS.—On Tuesday, Catharine A., beloved wife of William T. Nealls, at her residence, 73 East Funeral on Friday, Feb. 20, at 10 o'clock, thence to St. Paul's Church, where a solemn requie mass will be said for repose of her soul. Rel tives and friends respectively invited. NICHOLS .- At her home, 103 East 35th st., on Wednesday, Feb. 18, Ernin line S. Nichols, eldest daughter of the late Sillick and Eupheme Nichols, aged 93 years. Funeral ecremonies on Saturday morning at SHERRILL -- At Jersey City, on Feb. 17, 1908. George Sherrill, aged 73 years.

Funeral services will be held at his late residence, 129 Mercer st., Jersey City, on Thursday even-ing, Feb. 19, at 8 o'clock.

SILLCOCKS .- On Wednesday, Feb. 18, Warren &. Sillcocks. Relatives and friends are invited to attend the funeral services on Friday, Feb. 20, at 2 P. M. at 23 South Portland av., Brooklyn. TAYLOR .- On Tuesday, Feb. 17, 1903, of pneumonia, at Bound Brook, N. J., William Johnston Taylor, aged 67. Funeral services at his late residence, Round Brook, N. J., on Friday, Feb. 21, 1963, at 1 P. M. Interment private. Please omit flowers. Trais leaves foot of L berty st., New York, 11 A. M. AN DUYNE .-- At San Diego, Cal., Feb. 17, Mary B.

wife of George J. Van Duyne. Interment Evergreen Cemetery, Brooklyn. AN MARTER .- On Tuesday, Feb. 17, after a long silness, Edith Anna Lee, daughter of Robert and Alice Smille and beloved wife of Loon

Relatives and friends are invited to attend services from her late residence, 204 West 114th st., at 11 A. M., Thursday, Feb. 18,